

Iran pipeline to bypass Strait of Hormuz

Iran has started building a 1,000km pipeline to avoid the disputed Strait of Hormuz, allowing the Islamic Republic to continue exporting oil even if the strategic waterway is closed

Existing crude oil pipelines

Goreh-Jask pipeline: Will bring one million barrels of oil per day to Gulf of Oman for exports. Planned completion date March 2021