

Today in History

August 3, 2005

▲ The world's first cloned puppy was presented in South Korea. Snuppy (above right) was grown from a single cell from the ear of a three-year-old male dog (left)

1610: Captain Henry Hudson, seeking a new passage to the Pacific, discovered the bay later named after him

1778: La Scala opera house was opened in Milan

2000: Former President Suharto of Indonesia was indicted on charges of embezzling $570 million

2010: Ecuador agreed a deal with the UN not to drill for oil in the Yasuni National Park for at least a decade in return for $3.6 billion