

U.S. wages lost to pandemic

More than half of America's adult population say they – or another adult in their home – have lost employment income, while 35% say they're expecting their households to earn less over the next month

Experienced loss of income* (self or household member since March 13)

Expect loss of income in next four weeks* (self or household member)

Food sufficiency

More than one in eight people did not get enough food over last seven days

Often not enough to eat 2.2%

Sometimes not enough to eat 9.6%

Did not report 2.5%

Enough of all types of food wanted

Enough food, not always types wanted

*2020 Household Pulse Survey of 86,792 households, conducted July 16-21