

Pandemic pummels U.S. economy

The U.S. economy shrank at a record 32.9% annual pace in the second quarter. GDP has never shrunk by more than 10% in any quarter since the so-called Eisenhower Recession of 1958

Percent change from preceding period (quarterly, annual rate)

