

Today in History

September 2, 1945

▲ Japanese leaders signed the act of unconditional surrender which ended World War II, aboard the battleship USS Missouri, moored in Tokyo Bay

2005: U.S. troops began to evacuate New Orleans residents who had sought shelter from Hurricane Katrina in the Superdome and Convention Centre

2010: The ICC charged three Pakistan cricketers with corruption

2013: The eastern span replacement of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge opened with 10 traffic lanes

2016: Mother Teresa was officially declared a saint of the Roman Catholic Church