

Today in History

September 15, 1830

▲ British MP William Huskisson became the world's first railway fatality when he was struck by George Stephenson's train Rocket on its inaugural run

1821: Independence was proclaimed for Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and El Salvador

1935: Nazi Germany enacted the Nuremberg Laws, which led to all Jews being deprived of citizenship

1950: The UN landing of 75,000 troops at Incheon led to a decisive victory over North Korea during the Korean War

2017: The Cassini spacecraft plunged into Saturn's atmosphere at the end of a historic 20-year mission