

Today in History

September 24, 2015

▲ Over 2,000 people were crushed or suffocated in the deadliest ever stampede at the annual Hajj pilgrimage near Mecca. Over 400 victims were from Iran

1960: The first nuclear-powered aircraft carrier was launched in Virginia

1990: East Germany, once Moscow's chief frontline ally, left the Warsaw Pact ahead of unification with NATO member West Germany

2010: Brazilian semi-public energy company Petrobras raised $67 billion in the world's largest share offer

2019: An official impeachment inquiry against U.S. President Donald Trump was launched