

St. James's Park hosts 2020 London Marathon

The 40th London Marathon for elite runners only will take place within a "secure biosphere" around St James's Park, due to the ongoing coronavirus pandemic. The race features a star-studded line-up, with Sir Mo Farah acting as pacemaker for athletes chasing Olympic qualification

LEADING MEN

LEADING WOMEN

Eliud Kipchoge KEN

Men's marathon World record holder – four-time champion

Best: 2:01:39

Kenenisa Bekele ETH

2019 Berlin winner aiming for first victory in London

Best: 2:01:41

Brigid Kosgei KEN

2019 champion. Set women's marathon World record in Chicago

Best: 2:14:04

Ruth Chepngetich KEN

Reigning World Champion makes debut in London

Best: 2:17:08

Race: Sunday, October 4
Route: 19.6 laps of 2.15km circuit

START

Horse Guards Parade

Clarence House

FINISH:
Traditional race finish on The Mall

THE MALL

ST. JAMES'S PARK

Downing Street

Buckingham Palace

LONDON MARATHON
2020