

U.S. coronavirus death toll passes 200,000

The U.S. has passed the grim milestone of 200,000 deaths from coronavirus, making America the worst affected country in the world by far

Volunteers plant flags in Washington DC to mark U.S. Covid deaths

COVID-19 DEATHS BY U.S. STATE (Sep 23, 08:00GMT)

California: 15,210

New York: 33,090

New Jersey
16,076

Florida
13,416

Texas
15,229

U.S. DAILY COVID-19 CASES AND DEATHS (Mar 1-Sep 22)

Cases

60,000

40,000

20,000

0

Seven-day average line

Deaths

2,000

1,000

0

Seven-day average line

Total cases
6,897,432

Total deaths
200,814