

Pandemic to trigger rise in world's poor

For more than two decades extreme poverty has been declining, but now the economic fallout of Covid-19 will create millions of new poor

Covid-19 and associated economic crisis, compounded by effects of armed conflicts and climate change, are reversing poverty reduction

GLOBAL POVERTY RATE (% , at $1.90 per day poverty line)

