

EU sanctions Putin allies over Navalny

The European Union has imposed travel bans and asset freezes on members of President Vladimir Putin's inner circle as punishment for the poisoning of Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny

Alexander ▶

Bortnikov

Head of Federal Security Service (FSB), Russia's domestic spy agency

◀ Sergei Kiriyenko

First deputy chief of staff in Putin's administration

Source: European Union

▶ Alexey Krivoruchko

Deputy minister of defence

◀ Pavel Popov

Deputy minister of defence

▶ Sergei Menyaylo

Presidential envoy to Siberia

◀ Andrei Yarin

Head of presidential policy directorate

◀ State Research Institute of Organic Chemistry and Technology

Sanctions also imposed on body responsible for destruction of Soviet-era chemical weapons.

European experts say Navalny was poisoned with Novichok, type of Cold War nerve agent also used against former Russian spy in Britain in 2018

