

Today in History

November 8, 1960

▲ John F. Kennedy, aged 43, was elected President of the United States. He was the first president born in the 20th Century and the youngest president to be elected

1920: The cartoon character Rupert Bear first appeared in the Daily Express

1975: Lloyd J. Old, one of the founders of cancer immunology, named a key immune signaling molecule, tumor necrosis factor (TNF)

2015: Aung San Suu Kyi's National League for Democracy won a landslide election victory in Myanmar

2016: Businessman Donald Trump won a shock election victory to become President of the United States