

Global Covid-19 cases surpass 40 million

The Covid-19 pandemic has infected more than 40 million people worldwide and claimed at least 1.1 million lives, according to a tally by Johns Hopkins University

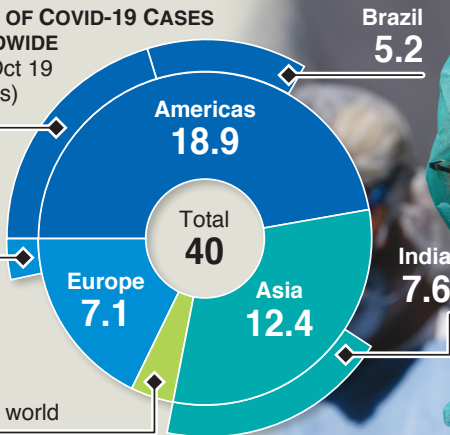

SHARE OF COVID-19 CASES WORLDWIDE

As of Oct 19 (millions)

United States
8.2

Russia
1.4

Rest of world
1.6

Brazil
5.2

India
7.6

CUMULATIVE COVID-19 CASES AND DEATHS (millions)

40

June 28
It takes six months for world to reach 10 million cases after virus first appeared in China in late 2019

Aug 10
Caseload doubles to 20 million in just six weeks

Sep 17
30 million

CASES

Oct 19: At least 1.1 million deaths

DEATHS

Jan Feb Mar Apr May Jun Jul Aug Sep Oct