

Today in History

November 26, 1940

▲ The Warsaw Ghetto was walled off, sealing in more than 400,000 Jewish residents, many of whom were subsequently deported to Nazi extermination camps

1832: The first horse-drawn streetcar, combining rails with animal power, entered public service in New York

1970: Pope Paul VI survived unhurt after a man with a dagger attacked him at Manila airport

1990: Lee Kuan Yew resigned as prime minister of Singapore after 31 years in office. At the time he was the world's longest serving elected prime minister

2018: NASA's InSight probe landed on Mars to study the deep interior