

Pakistan to upgrade status of part of Kashmir

Pakistan's Prime Minister Imran Khan has said his government will grant provincial status to Gilgit-Baltistan – part of the disputed territory of Kashmir – drawing condemnation from India

Nov 1 proposal by Imran Khan has been firmly rejected by India. Both Delhi and Islamabad have claimed all of Kashmir since gaining independence 73 years ago, and have fought two wars over territory