

UEFA Nations League 2020-21

The second UEFA Nations League tournament enters the final round of group stage matches with promotion and relegation to be decided, as well as which teams qualify for the play-offs

MATCHDAY 5

November 14

A3	Sweden	-	Croatia
A3	Portugal	-	France
A4	Switzerland	-	Spain
A4	Germany	-	Ukraine
C1	Cyprus	-	Luxembourg
C1	Azerbaijan	-	Montenegro
D1	Malta	-	Andorra
D1	Latvia	-	Faroe Islands
D2	San Marino	-	Gibraltar

November 15

A1	Netherlands	-	Bosnia-Herz
A1	Italy	-	Poland
A2	Denmark	-	Iceland
A2	Belgium	-	England
B1	Romania	-	Norway
B1	Austria	-	N. Ireland
B2	Slovakia	-	Scotland
B2	Czech Rep.	-	Israel
B3	Turkey	-	Russia
B3	Hungary	-	Serbia
B4	Bulgaria	-	Finland
B4	Wales	-	Ireland
C2	N. Macedonia	-	Estonia
C2	Georgia	-	Armenia
C3	Moldova	-	Greece
C3	Slovenia	-	Kosovo
C4	Albania	-	Kazakhstan
C4	Belarus	-	Lithuania

MATCHDAY 6

November 17

A3	Croatia	-	Portugal
A3	France	-	Sweden
A4	Spain	-	Germany
A4	Switzerland	-	Ukraine
C1	Luxembourg	-	Azerbaijan
C1	Montenegro	-	Cyprus
D1	Malta	-	Faroe Islands
D1	Andorra	-	Latvia
D2	Gibraltar	-	Liechtenstein

November 18

A1	Bosnia-Herz	-	Italy
A1	Poland	-	Netherlands
A2	England	-	Iceland
A2	Belgium	-	Denmark
B1	N. Ireland	-	Romania
B1	Austria	-	Norway
B2	Israel	-	Scotland
B2	Czech Rep.	-	Slovakia
B3	Serbia	-	Russia
B3	Hungary	-	Turkey
B4	Ireland	-	Bulgaria
B4	Wales	-	Finland
C2	Armenia	-	N. Macedonia
C2	Georgia	-	Estonia
C3	Kosovo	-	Moldova
C3	Greece	-	Slovenia
C4	Kazakhstan	-	Lithuania
C4	Albania	-	Belarus

October 2021

UEFA Nations League play-offs: March 2022

League A

League B

League C

League D

UEFA Nations League Finals

Four group winners compete to be crowned Nations League champions

Two best UEFA Nations League group winners will qualify for FIFA World Cup play-offs – final chance to qualify for 2022 tournament in Qatar

If any team has already gained World Cup or play-off berth through direct qualifying matches, next best-placed team will take play-off position