

Peru's presidency in crisis

Peru, for years one of Latin America's fastest growing economies, has seen a series of presidents ousted from office or imprisoned on allegations of corruption over the past three decades

◀ Alberto Fujimori (1990-2000)

Resigned/impeached. Serving prison sentence for human rights violations and corruption

Valentin Paniagua (2000-01) ▶

Only president in 30 years who has not faced accusations of corruption. In office for just eight months

◀ Alejandro Toledo (2001-06)

Facing extradition to Peru from U.S. for allegedly receiving bribes from Brazilian construction firm Odebrecht

Alan Garcia (1985-90/2006-11) ▶

Committed suicide in 2019 as police arrived to arrest him in connection with Odebrecht probe

◀ Ollanta Humala (2011-16)

Awaiting trial for allegedly receiving $3 million from Odebrecht during 2011 election campaign

Pedro Pablo Kuczynski (2016-18) ▶

Resigned in 2018 on eve of second impeachment vote over Odebrecht allegations

◀ Martin Vizcarra (2018-20)

Impeached on Nov 9 over allegations he handed out government contracts in return for bribes

Manuel Merino (Nov 10-15, 2020) ▶

Former head of Congress, resigned following days of street protests over Vizcarra's removal

