

Russia to build naval base in Sudan

Russia is planning to build a naval base in Sudan capable of mooring nuclear-powered surface vessels, as the Kremlin seeks to expand its military influence across Africa

COUNTRIES / TERRITORIES HOSTING RUSSIAN MILITARY BASES

Ukraine
Crimea*

Belarus

Moldova
Transnistria region

Georgia
Abkhazia and South Ossetia regions

Syria

*Annexed by Russia in 2014

Azerbaijan
Peacekeeping force
since Nov 10

Kazakhstan

Kyrgyzstan

Tajikistan

Armenia

Sudan

Russian President Vladimir Putin has signed off on plan to establish naval logistics and support hub – Russia's first major military base in Africa since fall of Soviet Union

Port Sudan: Russian base to be built in vicinity of port city. Facility will be able to accommodate up to 300 personnel and have berthing space for four warships

