

Resignations over U.S. Capitol riot

Some of President Trump's key staff – including Cabinet members – abandon the White House in protest at their leader's role in mob attacks on the Capitol building

Betsy DeVos
Education Secretary

Elaine Chao
Transportation secretary

Mick Mulvaney
Special envoy to Northern Ireland

Matthew Pottinger
Deputy national security adviser

John Costello
Senior cybersecurity officials

Tyler Goodspeed
Acting chairman of White House Council of Economic Advisers

Stephanie Grisham
Chief of staff to First lady Melania Trump

Rickie Niceta
White House social secretary

STORMING CAPITOL, Jan 6

- 1 12:00 (local time): President Donald Trump holds rally
- 2 13:10: Mob breaches Capitol
- 3 14:15: Vice-President Mike Pence escorted out
- 4 14:30: Video shows protesters roaming Statuary Hall
- 5 14:45: Armed standoff between police and mob
- 18:00: Capitol secured

Rotunda

Statuary Hall

House Chamber

Five people, including Capitol policeman, killed during assault

U.S. CAPITOL

Senate Chamber

