

Global Covid-19 cases surpass 100 million

The global number of Covid-19 infections has surpassed the 100 million mark, with more than 2.1 million deaths, as countries scramble for vaccine supplies and battle new strains of the virus

CASE DISTRIBUTION

Nine countries plus EU collectively account for more than three-quarters of world's cases

Russia: 3.7

UK: 3.7

Turkey: 2.4

European Union (EU)

25.4

8.9

United States

Brazil

Colombia: 2.0

Argentina: 1.9

Mexico: 1.8

Total
100m

Rest of world

18.8

10.7

India

CUMULATIVE CASES AND DEATHS (millions)

Jun 2020: World reaches 10 million cases six months after emergence of virus in late 2019

Aug-Oct: It takes more than two months for cases to go from 20-40 million

Nov-Dec
Cases go from 60-80 million in just one month

DEATHS

More than 2.1 million

CASES

Jan Feb Mar Apr May Jun Jul Aug Sep Oct Nov Dec 2021