

Today in History

February 16, 2020

▲ Larry Tesler, creator of the “cut/copy and paste”, and “find and replace” commands that made the personal computer more user-friendly, died at age 74

2006: A UN report said treatment of suspected terrorists in the U.S. prison of Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, violated human rights conventions

2006: Rene Preval was declared the winner of elections in Haiti

2010: The first train service in decades re-opened between Iraq and Turkey

2016: The U.S. reported that China had deployed missiles to a disputed island in the South China Sea, further increasing tensions in the region