

Attack on the U.S. Capitol

According to an analysis by the New York Times, federal charges against 176 people who took part in the deadly attack on the U.S. Capitol in January provide an initial portrait of the perpetrators

Donald Trump: Charged with “incitement of insurrection” over storming of Capitol

Affiliations of people charged*

Brian Sicknick: U.S. Capitol Police officer killed as he defended Congress

117 / 66.5%

Support former-President Trump’s claim that he had won re-election

*176 people who had federal charges filed and unsealed as of January 31

†Linked to Proud Boys, Oath Keepers or other groups

Criminal charges

107

Charged with trespassing or disrupting Congress

43

Interference with law enforcement, threats, property, weapons crimes

26

Conspiracy crimes or assault

22 / 12.5%

Former or current military members

3 / 1.7%

Serving police officers

21 / 11.9%

Ties to militant groups, militias†

13 / 7.4%

Supporters of QAnon conspiracy theories

