

Today in History

March 10, 1886

▲ Charles Cruft, manager of a dog biscuit firm, held his first dog show in London. Crufts is now the world's largest show of its kind, featuring 28,000 dogs each year

1995: Spain sent a gunboat to protect its trawlers fishing in international waters off Canada

2006: NASA's Mars Reconnaissance Orbiter entered orbit around the red planet after a seven-month journey

2014: North Korean leader Kim Jong-un won an election with not one vote cast against him

2017: President Park Geun-hye of South Korea was forced from office over a corruption scandal