

Today in History

March 18, 2016

▲ Turkey reached a deal with the European Union to curb the tide of migrants heading for Greece, and take back migrants who were not eligible for asylum

1891: The first telephone link from London to Paris was established, using an underwater cable

1931: The first electric razors were produced in the U.S. by Schick Inc.

2001: The World Water Forum warned that two in three people throughout the world would face severe water shortages by 2025

2011: Major demonstrations took place against the regime of President Bashar al-Assad in Syria