

EU faces delays in vaccine deliveries

AstraZeneca expects to deliver less than half the 180 million doses of Covid-19 vaccine to the EU in the second quarter of 2021. The total will be about 130 million doses – well below the 300 million contracted

Doses per 100 people (Feb 23 or latest)

2.6 billion

Vaccine doses secured by EU – 5.8 doses for every EU-27 citizen

European Commission

Ursula von der Leyen: European Commission President expects 300 million of various vaccine doses to be delivered to EU in second quarter

Vaccine doses approved for use by EU drug regulator (as of Feb 24)

Pfizer/BioNTech*	500 million
AstraZeneca	400 million
Moderna†	310 million

Awaiting approval

Curevac	405 million
Sanofi/GSK	300 million
Johnson & Johnson	310 million

*Option for extra 100 million doses †Option for extra 150 million delivered in 2022