

Today in History

April 24, 1915

▲ The Ottoman government began deporting Armenian intellectuals from Constantinople (Istanbul). Over a million ethnic Armenians were killed in the following years

1916: The Easter Rising, an armed rebellion aimed at ending British rule in Ireland, began

1921: The Tyrol region of central Europe voted for union with Germany

1996: Russian President Boris Yeltsin met Chinese President Jiang Zemin at the start of a visit to Beijing

2001: An unmanned spy plane completed the first non-stop, robotic flight across the Pacific