

Today in History

April 25, 1916

▲ Anzac Day was commemorated for the first time on the first anniversary of the landing of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps at Gallipoli in World War I

1719: Daniel Defoe published his novel about castaway Robinson Crusoe. Popular worldwide, it has spawned many films, TV and radio adaptations

1926: Arturo Toscanini conducted the first performance of Puccini's opera Turandot at La Scala, Milan

1971: 200,000 anti-Vietnam War protesters marched on Washington

1976: Elections took place in Vietnam for a National Assembly to reunite the two halves of the country