

Today in History

May 29, 1986

▲ The European flag, showing a circle of 12 golden stars on a blue background, was first raised outside the European Commission headquarters in Brussels

2000: Martial law was imposed in Fiji 10 days after the prime minister was taken hostage in an armed coup

2001: Four men were convicted of the U.S. embassy bombings in Kenya and Tanzania that killed 224

2003: U.S. scientists announced they had cloned the first equine animal, a baby mule born three weeks earlier

2008: New research indicated that Stone Age Britons used Stonehenge as a burial ground