

Today in History

May 31, 1921

▲ An attack on a prosperous black area of Tulsa, Oklahoma, killed around 300 residents in one of the worst ever atrocities targeting black Americans

1994: The death toll in the Rwandan genocide reached 800,000

2005: Former US FBI deputy head Mark Felt revealed he was “Deep Throat”, the source who helped reporters unravel the 1972 Watergate scandal

2010: The IAEA said Iran had the capacity to make two nuclear weapons

2020: Bulgarian-born artist Christo, who wrapped buildings in reams of fabric, died aged 84