

Mexico City metro overpass collapse

At least 23 people have been killed and dozens injured in Mexico City, after a metro overpass collapsed while a train was travelling on it

12

Line 12: Opened in 2012, becoming newest addition to capital's metro

May 3, 10.30pm (local time): Overpass at Olivos station on metro 12 line collapses – several train carriages plunge onto road, crushing cars underneath