

Cost of Myanmar coup, 100 days on

More than 700 people have been killed in Myanmar since the military seized power on February 1, according to a local monitoring group, as security forces have sought to suppress near-daily protests

DEATHS IN MYANMAR

People killed per week in violence since Feb 1 coup

4,900 Approximate number of people arrested as of May 9. More than 3,800 people remain under detention

10% Percentage contraction in Myanmar economy in 2021, according to forecasts by World Bank

50% Percentage of Myanmar's population that could be living in poverty by 2022 (UN Development Programme estimate)