

Russian school shooting

A gunman has opened fire in a school in the Russian city of Kazan, killing nine people and injuring at least 21 others, some seriously

Local media has named gunman as 19-year old former pupil
Ilnaz Galyaviev

May 11: Lone gunman enters School No 175 and opens fire, killing seven students – four boys and three girls – and two adults

