

Today in History

June 28, 1971

▲ Elon Musk, founder and CEO of spacecraft company SpaceX and electric-car maker Tesla, and now one of the world's richest men, was born in South Africa

1939: Pan American Airways inaugurated a regular transatlantic air service

1992: U.S. surgeons transplanted a baboon's liver into a human being

1995: The state of Madhya Pradesh in central India was designated as the "Tiger State" to protect the threatened animal from poachers and settlers

2020: The global death toll from Covid-19 surpassed 500,000, with over 10 million cases worldwide