

Today in History

July 02, 2011

▲ Prince Albert II of Monaco married Charlene Wittstock, a former Olympian swimmer from South Africa, in a lavish two-day ceremony in the tiny principality

1956: Elvis Presley recorded Hound Dog and Don't Be Cruel in New York

1976: North and South Vietnam were reunited following the Vietnam War with Hanoi as the capital

2001: A patient in the U.S. city of Louisville received the first fully implantable artificial heart

2020: Infiltration of the encrypted phone network EncroChat, used by criminals to trade drugs and guns, led to Europe-wide arrests