

Largest U.S. reservoir at historic low

Lake Mead, the largest reservoir in the U.S. and crucial to the water supply of 25 million people, has sunk to its lowest level ever, highlighting the extreme drought gripping the U.S. West

Reservoir is at 30% capacity

