

Scores dead in North America heatwave

An unprecedented heatwave has smashed records across the Pacific Northwest and contributed to more than a hundred deaths in the Canadian city of Vancouver alone

ALASKA
(U.S.)

Vancouver area:
More than 130 sudden deaths reported
since Jun 25

Seattle,
Jun 28:
42.2C

Portland,
Jun 28:
46.1C

PACIFIC OCEAN

Lytton BC, Jun 29:

Canada breaks its own record for third straight day as temperature reaches 49.5C
Previous highest recorded temperature in Canada was 45C

BRITISH COLUMBIA

ALBERTA

CANADA

SASKATCHEWAN

WASHINGTON

IDAHO

OREGON

UNITED STATES

Hudson Bay

600km
375 miles

Ottawa

Washington DC

*Child cools off at water
park in Richmond,
British Columbia*

Most fatalities
among elderly or those with underlying health conditions,
exacerbated by heat