

Slow rebound for jobs

The pandemic has left 22 million people out of work in industrial nations, with the young and low-skilled hurt most, according to the OECD, which forecasts the jobs market will not recover until the end of 2022

Unemployment rates

■ % of labour force

■ % of 15-24 year-olds

