

English Premier League 2021-22

AUGUST 13, 2021 - MAY 22, 2022

The 30th Premier League season kicks off, with fierce rivalries played out over 380 enthralling matches. The world's most watched football league drew an estimated cumulative global audience of 3.2 billion in 2019

Roll Call of Champions

Since inaugural Premier League season in 1992, Manchester United have hoisted trophy more than any other team, winning 13 titles

Manchester United: 13 titles	1993, 94, 96, 97, 99, 2000, 01, 03, 07, 08, 09, 11, 13
Manchester City	5 2012, 14, 18, 19, 21
Chelsea	5 2005, 06, 10, 15, 17
Arsenal	3 1998, 2002, 04
Liverpool	1 2020
Leicester City	1 2016
Blackburn Rovers	1 1995

Golden Boot

Harry Kane (below) won Golden Boot in 2020-21 with 23 goals for Tottenham – one more than Liverpool's Mohamed Salah

Patrick Bamford
Leeds Utd

Emiliano Martinez
Aston Villa

Andrew Robertson
Liverpool

N'Golo Kanté
Chelsea

Rúben Dias
Man City

Bukayo Saka
Arsenal

Kelechi Iheanacho
Leicester City

Tomás Soucek
West Ham

Billy Gilmour
Norwich City

2020-21 champions Manchester City

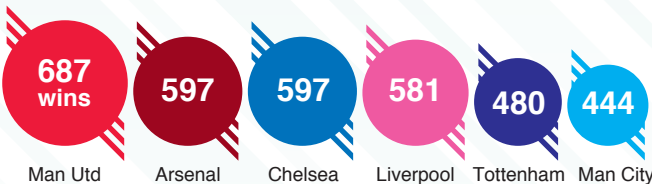

Celebrated third title in four seasons

UNITED AMBITION

Manchester United have won 687 matches throughout Premier League history – 90 more than nearest rivals Arsenal and Chelsea

All-time Premier League match wins

Key fixtures

All fixtures subject to change to fit TV schedules

44.2% 38 of 86 promoted teams relegated in first season

OPENING WEEKEND: Aug 13-15

Brentford	-	Arsenal
Manchester Utd	-	Leeds United
Burnley	-	Brighton
Chelsea	-	Crystal Palace
Everton	-	Southampton
Leicester City	-	Wolves
Watford	-	Aston Villa
Norwich City	-	Liverpool
Newcastle United	-	West Ham United
Tottenham	-	Manchester City

BOXING DAY: Dec 26

Aston Villa	-	Chelsea
Brighton	-	Brentford
Burnley	-	Everton
Liverpool	-	Leeds United
Manchester City	-	Leicester City
Newcastle United	-	Manchester Utd
Norwich City	-	Arsenal
Tottenham	-	Crystal Palace
West Ham United	-	Southampton
Wolves	-	Watford

"BIG SIX" CLASHES

		2020-21 result
Aug 15	Tottenham - Man City	2-0
Aug 22	Arsenal - Chelsea	3-1
Aug 28	Man City - Arsenal	1-0
Aug 28	Liverpool - Chelsea	0-1
Sep 19	Tottenham - Chelsea	0-1
Sep 25	Chelsea - Man City	1-3
Sep 26	Arsenal - Tottenham	2-1
Oct 2	Liverpool - Man City	1-4
Oct 23	Man Utd - Liverpool	2-4
Oct 30	Tottenham - Man Utd	1-3
Nov 6	Man Utd - Man City	0-0
Nov 20	Liverpool - Arsenal	3-1
Nov 27	Chelsea - Man Utd	0-0
Nov 30	Man Utd - Arsenal	0-1
Dec 18	Tottenham - Liverpool	1-3
Jan 1	Arsenal - Man City	0-1
Jan 1	Chelsea - Liverpool	0-2
Jan 15	Man City - Chelsea	1-2
Jan 15	Tottenham - Arsenal	2-0
Jan 22	Chelsea - Tottenham	0-0
Feb 12	Chelsea - Arsenal	0-1
Feb 19	Man City - Tottenham	3-0
Feb 26	Arsenal - Liverpool	0-3
Mar 5	Man City - Man Utd	0-2
Mar 12	Man Utd - Tottenham	1-6
Mar 19	Liverpool - Man Utd	0-0
Apr 9	Man City - Liverpool	1-1
Apr 23	Arsenal - Man Utd	0-0
May 7	Liverpool - Tottenham	2-1
May 15	Man Utd - Chelsea	0-0

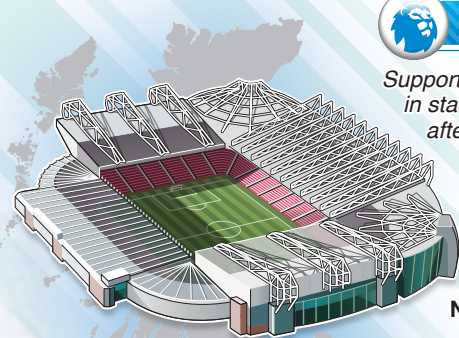

NEW YEAR'S DAY: Jan 1

Arsenal	-	Manchester City
Brentford	-	Aston Villa
Chelsea	-	Liverpool
Crystal Palace	-	West Ham United
Everton	-	Brighton
Leeds United	-	Burnley
Leicester City	-	Norwich City
Manchester Utd	-	Wolves
Southampton	-	Newcastle United
Watford	-	Tottenham

FINAL DAY: May 22

Arsenal	-	Everton
Brentford	-	Leeds United
Brighton	-	West Ham United
Burnley	-	Newcastle United
Chelsea	-	Watford
Crystal Palace	-	Manchester Utd
Leicester City	-	Southampton
Liverpool	-	Wolves
Manchester City	-	Aston Villa
Norwich City	-	Tottenham

Jadon Sancho (right), Man Utd's £73m summer signing

Stadiums

Supporters expected back in stadiums this season, after pandemic forced most of 2020-21 campaign to be played behind closed doors

Everton:
Goodison Park
39,220

Man Utd:
Old Trafford (above)
74,870
Largest by capacity

Man City:
Etihad Stadium
55,000

Wolverhampton:
Molineux, 32,050

Burnley:
Turf Moor
21,940

Leeds United:
Elland Road
37,890

Leicester City:
King Power Stadium
32,270

Norwich City:
Carrow Road
27,240

Aston Villa:
Villa Park, 42,680

Watford:
Vicarage Road
21,000

Brighton:
Amex Stadium
30,660

Southampton:
St. Mary's Stadium
32,380

Tottenham:
Tottenham Hotspur Stadium
62,060

West Ham United:
London Stadium
60,000

LONDON

Arsenal:
Emirates Stadium
60,260

Brentford:
Community Stadium
17,250

Chelsea:
Stamford Bridge
40,850

Crystal Palace:
Selhurst Park
25,480

Moving on up

Brentford back in top flight for first time since 1947. Norwich City and Watford return to Premier League after just one season away

