

Today in History

August 2, 2018

▲ Apple became the world's first public company to be worth $1 trillion, beating Silicon Valley rivals Amazon and Microsoft to hit the valuation

1932: The positron, the antimatter counterpart to the electron, was discovered by Carl D. Anderson

1939: Albert Einstein urged the U.S. to begin an atomic weapons project

2001: A former Bosnian Serb general was jailed for 46 years for the genocide of 7,000 Bosnian Muslims in Srebrenica

2009: Two newly discovered works written by Mozart as a child were performed on his own piano in Salzburg, the city of his birth