

Today in History

August 23, 2020

▲ Bayern Munich won the UEFA Champions League final for a sixth time, and became the first team to win every game in a single Champions League campaign

1961: East Germany imposed new travel restrictions between West and East Berlin

1966: NASA's Lunar Orbiter 1 took the first photograph of the Earth from the Moon, during an unmanned mission

2006: Austrian kidnap victim Natascha Kampusch escaped after eight years in a windowless cell near Vienna

2011: Libyan rebels seized Muammar Gaddafi's Tripoli compound, with its iconic statue of a crushed U.S. plane