

Rhino killing up after Covid curbs end

Rhino poaching in South Africa rose by 50% in the first half of 2021 compared to a year earlier, when poachers were restricted by Covid-19 rules

Rhinos killed for their horns, used in traditional Asian medicine

ZIMBABWE

Gonarezhou

100km
60 miles

Zinave

Banhine

Limpopo

SOUTH AFRICA

MOZAMBIQUE

ESWATINI

Kruger: 132 rhinos killed from Jan to end of June

South Africa is home to around 20,000 white rhinos – more than 90% of world's population

◀ Great Limpopo Transfrontier Park: Comprises Kruger and other national parks in Mozambique and Zimbabwe

