

Decline in EU student applications to UK

Applications to UK universities from EU students have fallen 43% since Brexit, while numbers from China have more than doubled since 2017

Cambridge, one of UK's most prestigious universities, is home to 30,000 students

APPLICATIONS TO UK UNIVERSITIES FROM EU AND CHINA (000s)

Northern Ireland has not raised fees for EU students – applications up by 35%

China continuing upward trend while EU applications fall dramatically after rise in UK fees post-Brexit