

Today in History

September 14, 1868

▲ Scotsman “Young” Tom Morris, pictured above with his father, “Old” Tom Morris, scored golf’s first recorded hole-in-one at the Open Championship at Prestwick

1955: Little Richard recorded his most famous song, Tutti Frutti

2013: The U.S. and Russia agreed to enable the elimination of Syria’s chemical weapons stockpile

2016: German pharmaceutical giant Bayer AG announced it was buying U.S. agricultural firm Monsanto

2016: The Rosetta spacecraft spotted its probe, Philae, in a deep crack of comet 69P C-G. Philae landed on the comet in 2015