

INTOURIST
AEROFLOT
SOVIET UNION

Today in History

September 24, 1971

▲ Britain expelled 90 Soviet diplomats for spying following revelations by a top KGB officer who defected from the Soviet Embassy in London

1776: The St Leger, the world's oldest classic horse race, was first run

1996: The five nuclear powers signed the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty, banning all nuclear testing

2006: NASA recorded the largest ozone hole in the atmosphere to that date, some 10.6 million square miles

2019: The House of Representatives launched an impeachment inquiry against President Donald Trump, accusing him of abusing his office