

Republican wins Virginia in blow to Biden

Republican Glenn Youngkin's win in the Virginia governor's election has dealt a blow to President Joe Biden and Democrats' hopes of keeping control of Congress in next year's mid-term elections

◀ Glenn Youngkin, 54:

Victory for mild-mannered private equity tycoon could offer template for Republicans seeking to win back suburban moderate voters alienated by former President Donald Trump's firebrand style of politics

Glenn Youngkin
Republican

50.7%
1,677,436 votes

Terry McAuliffe
Democrat

48.6%
1,610,142 votes

>95% est. votes reported

└ Princess Blanding. Independent
0.7%, 22,759 votes