

Sabalenka aims to crown stellar season at WTA Finals

Aryna Sabalenka heads the seeds at the WTA Finals in Guadalajara, following the withdrawal of World No.1 Ashleigh Barty. The Madrid champion – appearing at the showpiece for the first time – will face tough opposition from a competitive field, including Roland Garros winner Barbora Krejčíková

Krejčíková

Plisková

Sakkari

WTA FINALS: Nov 10-17

2021 record

Win

Loss

Round robin: Players drawn into two groups of four.

Top two players in each group advance to semi-finals

Titles won

Aryna Sabalenka	BLR	44	16	Abu Dhabi, Madrid
Barbora Krejčíková	CZE	45	14	Strasbourg, Roland Garros , Prague
Karolína Plisková	CZE	35	18	Final: Wimbledon
Maria Sakkari	GRE	36	18	Semi-final: Roland Garros, U.S. Open
Iga Swiatek	POL	35	13	Adelaide, Rome
Garbine Muguruza	ESP	38	16	Dubai, Chicago
Paula Badosa	ESP	41	15	Belgrade, Indian Wells
Anett Kontaveit	EST	45	15	Cleveland, Ostrava, Moscow, Cluj-Napoca

RECENT WINNERS: Guadalajara hosts most prestigious event on WTA calendar for first time due to Covid-19 travel restrictions in China – Shenzhen will resume hosting duties from 2022 to 2030

2019	Ashleigh Barty AUS	bt	Elina Svitolina UKR	6-4, 6-3
2018	Elina Svitolina UKR		Sloane Stephens USA	3-6, 6-2, 6-2
2017	Caroline Wozniacki DEN		Venus Williams USA	6-4, 6-4
2016	Dominika Cibulkova SVK		Angelique Kerber GER	6-3, 6-4
2015	Agnieszka Radwanska POL		Petra Kvitova CZE	6-2, 4-6, 6-3