

World famine emergency plan

The World Food Programme is warning that 42 million people are on the brink of famine and urging the world's wealthiest to step up with US$6.6 billion to help avert catastrophe

Acute food insecurity (people affected, funds needed)

1. Haiti

 1.34m
$32.2 million

2. Venezuela

 2.30m
$65.3 million

3. D R Congo

 6.73m
$231.6 million

4. South Sudan

 2.52m
$637.2 million

5. Sudan

 2.70m
$453.1 million

6. Ethiopia

 4.73m
$603.5 million

7. Syria

 1.27m
$509.6 million

8. Yemen

 5.12m
$1,232.8 million

9. Afghanistan

 5.50m
$469.5 million

10. Pakistan

 0.99m
$42 million

33 other countries

 8.84m, $2,319.4 million

Total of 43 countries

 42.03m, $6,596.2 million

World Food Programme's
$6.6bn emergency plan

One meal a day: $0.43 per person per day – basic needed to survive

Funds needed: $157 per person per year for 42 million people

Country-specific costs: $700m

Food and delivery
$3,500m

Cash, food vouchers
$2,000m

Global, regional operations: $400m