

Freeskier sets off down huge ramp and launches into air to perform epic trick, such as double cork or triple cork

Drop:
51.5m

Birk Ruud (Nor), top of World Cup standings

This is new Olympic event, making its debut in Beijing

Freeskier gets three jumps, with each one judged on:
Amplitude, Difficulty, Execution and Landing

Shougang Park – world's first permanent Big Air structure, built on site of former steel mill

Judges Stand
Panel of six judges evaluates each run

SCORING Judges score runs between 1 and 100. Highest and lowest scores discarded, and remaining four averaged out to give final score

Performing more rotations and unique grabs will score more highly, as will landing cleanly

WORLD CUP STANDINGS

Birk Ruud (NOR)	Giulia Tanno (SUI)
Antoine Adelisse (FRA)	Tess Ledeux (FRA)
Oliwer Magnusson (SWE)	Kelly Sildaru (EST)