

Vaccine rollout highlights global inequalities

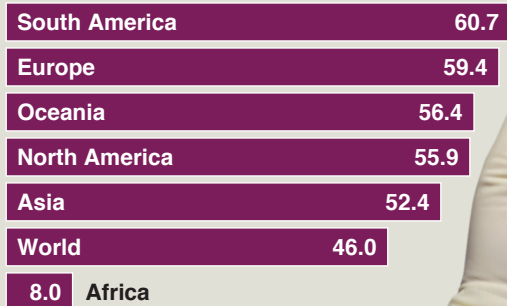

Two years into the Covid-19 pandemic, close to half of the world's population remains unvaccinated – the vast majority of them in low-income and lower-middle-income countries

Share of population receiving at least one dose of Covid-19 vaccine (%)

By country

Share of population fully vaccinated against Covid-19 (%)

All data as of
Dec 11, 2021

