

Today in History

February 6, 1952

▲ Elizabeth II became Queen of the United Kingdom and six other nations. She cut short a visit to Kenya to fly home on the death of her father, King George VI

1927: Ten-year-old violin child prodigy Yehudi Menuhin caused a sensation on his debut in Paris

1993: Belgium become a federal state with separate regions of Wallonia, Flanders and Brussels

2013: The Halley VI Research Station, built on huge hydraulic skis, was unveiled in Antarctica

2018: SpaceX successfully launched its Falcon Heavy rocket on its maiden flight